

SOCIAL WORK

Social workers are a diverse group of professionals who share a commitment to helping enhance the well-being of people, communities, and society. They have a rich history of striving for social, economic, and environmental justice, advocating for human rights, competently providing services for clients at every stage of life, and engaging in lifelong learning. Students majoring in Social Work learn to appreciate the cultural and human diversity in society through classroom experience and field work. Faculty in the Department of Sociology & Social Work maintain active ties to community agencies that address a variety of issues including health, aging, substance abuse, and mental health services.

BEYOND THE CLASSROOM

HANDS-ON EXPERIENCE

Field work provides on-the-job learning experience under close supervision by a faculty member and an agency professional. A variety of agencies in the Greater Cincinnati region serve as field work sites, including mental health facilities, crisis centers for domestic violence, homeless shelters, community service agencies, foster care programs, and nursing homes.
